EVENT SPECIALISTS

Please consider this list a portfolio summary of the collective talent and experience available to you as our prospective client. Numerous projects on the list were managed by individual associates prior to their joining LES, while many other events on the list have been produced by the current LES team. A large proportion of the fund raising events were produced and designed by Sam Leftwich Events. Each of our members will be pleased to discuss her or his particular area of expertise when we partner with you to form a customized team for your project.
